A course in Baptist History and Polity ~ 2017-18

This course is designed for those seeking ordination or professional standing through the American Baptist Churches of RI or the American Baptist Churches of Massachusetts Congregational educators (pastors and/or church school teachers) who wish to use our rich history as subject matter for their local programs
Any person who is interested in exploring our Baptist heritage and practices

Each track will have appropriate assignments and expectations. Assignments will include select readings, reflection papers, student presentations, class participation, and/or research. A detailed syllabus and bibliography will be given to all who register.

The Course will be offered as four 7 hour sessions on the following dates:
Sept. 23, 2017, Nov.4, 2017, Jan.13, 2018, & Feb. 24, 2018 from 9:00 am until 4:00 pm

The sessions will be held at Canonicus Camp & Conference Center unless otherwise directed.

The cost of the course will be $400 per student in the ordination track; $50 per session for all others. Scholarships may be available.
